

Sufic poetry and the reformation of Society

Dr. Yar Muhammad Maghmoom Khattak (Edward College Peshawar)

Abstract:

Peace and harmony tends to disappear from our societies gradually. This paper through light on the essence of Mysticism in dealing with the inherent and outward onrest in human being and societies. The message of Mysticism that is patience, tolerance, love of diversity, selflessness and unconditional love have been elaborated through the lense of the Mystic in classical poets of Pashto classical literature.

Key words: Pashto, classical literature, societies gradually, Sufic Poetry.