

Pashto Language and Globalization; Hopes and Despairs

پښتو ژبه او عالمگیریت (امکانات او خدشات)

Dr. Javed Iqbal (Assistant Professor, Department of Pashto UOB Quetta)

Abstract:

Anthropologists have acknowledged the significance of Language in the construction, promotion and growth of cultures. The leading tides of capitalist globalization have created a chaos at global level that has degenerated the local cultures with its unprecedented economic, educational and cultural agendas. In this paper, the scholar has strived to analyze the possibilities of promotion and growth of Pashto language in the peculiar global scenario.

Key words: Anthropologists, Language, capitalist globalization, Cultures, global scenario.