Abstract:

The authors of this paper have intensively investigated the role of Pashto literary societies in Balochistan. As Balochistan is considered one of the significant centers for the promotion of Pashto language and literature besides its historical connection with the Afghanistan, a number of Pashto literary societies emerged and developed. Due to their contribution to Pashto literature; poetic & prose collections, critical and research based writings have been written. The authors of this paper strived to unpack the emergence of literary societies in Balochistan, their promoters, valuable service and much more but with a critical view.

Key words: Poetic, prose, Afghanistan, Balochistan, Pashto Literary, Societies, Southern Pashtoonkhwa.
