

Nawab Shad Muhammad Khan, a Strong follower of the Rehman Baba School of Thought
نواب شاد محمد خان د رحمان بابا د مکتب يو کلک غږی

Dr. Ali Ahmed Ajiz (Professor, Department of Pashto University of Peshawar KPK)

Abstract:

Rehman Baba was one of the famous poet throughout the world, who needs no introduction. His school of thought is very lovely, attractive, and a large number of poets dedicated his poetry to him. Among them, one of his followers was Nawab Shad Muhammad Khan. He was inspired too much from Rehman Baba. Therefore, he followed him with each and every angle we can see spiritual touch in his poetry. Let do prove that with discussion and example Nawab Shad Muhammad Khan himself, was one of the Sufi and Mendicant person. Therefore, we can see all the signs of Sufism, found in his poetry.

Key words: Rehman Baba, Nawab Shad Muhammad Khan, School of Thought, Followers, Sufism.