Abstract:

Pukhtun is a nation of trail-blazers. In track of his past and current history, this nation has produced numerous great personalities who through their personal consummate unique characteristics, knowledge and learning, leadership qualities and achievements had distinguished themselves and certainly made themselves a source of pride for the ensuing Pukhtun generations. Among all those age-moving personalities is one Sheikh Milli whose entire personal and intellectual life needs deep and thorough study by the attentive student of the issue. Sheikh Milli not only plodded through life with magnificent tenacity...had reconstructed out of the wreckage of his shattered nation new and higher philosophy for himself and his nation but he erected a new national edifice on a new and better moral foundation for his nation. His remarkable book "da Sheikh Milli Daftar" that he wrote for the benefit of Pukhtuns is sufficient to perpetuate his memory for ever through all generations. Apart from "Da Sheikh Milli Daftar" his two other books sharing the same name of "Fatha Swat" is evidently a witness to his illustrious intellectual prowess. This research paper sheds light on the life and services rendered by this great leader of Pukhtun nation.

Key words: Pukhtun, nation, trail-blazers, shaikh millifatha swat.
