Abstract:

The study disclosed that enlightenment is a well understood phenomena and known as a movement of the European modern history as well. It's brought many new ways of educational and scientific development. All nations of the world had some important movements in their history and similar is the case of Pakhtun social structure in the form of Bayazid Roshan known as Rokhani movement, focused on Greek philosophy. Moreover, this paper examined the background of European and Rokhani movements. Furthermore, the study also highlighted the common prevailing aspects in both of the movements followed by similar conceptions in it, while disclosing its results.

Key words: European, modern history, bayazid roshan, nation, greek philosophy.
