Abstract:

Kazim khan Shida , one of the great literary figure of his time who has presented many works to Pashto literature on which most of the authors work and explore the various aspects of his life, works and poetry now. So, I also choose to work on the valuable idioms and words of him in which he has discussed about the Pashtuns life and culture. Idioms are the linguistic structures and expressions which meanings cannot be inferred from the meaning of words that make it up but used to express the metaphorical meaning.

Key words: Pashto, Classic Literature, Shida, Poetry, Idioms.
