

A Short introduction to Mr. Saif ur Rahman Saleem:
*Life and progressive poetry:

Inamullah Inam

M.Phil Scholar, Pashtoonkwa Study Center, Bacha Khan University, Charsada, KPK

Mudassar Yousafzai

M.Phil Scholar, Pashtoonkwa Study Center, Bacha Khan University, Charsada, KPK

Abstract:

Mr. Saif ur Rahman Saleem was born on 1st April 1929 at Daud Zai Gulu Zai Peshawar, Khyber Pakhtoon khwa Pakistan and died on 7th March 2007. His father name was Sayyad jalal Shah. Academically he was matriculate but according to the low level of education at his time he was appointed as clerk in treasure department. He is the author of two books “سندرېز شفونہ” and “د وړو وړو خدايانو دې بنده کړم”.

Mr. Saif ur Rahman Saleem was known as poet. He was an eminent figure for “Lyrics” of 20th century which got famous all over his territory. The key point which is obvious out of his poetry is that he was a philanthropist. In all of his life he gave his arguments in favor of labor and workers and raised his voice against investors, wealthy and rich people.

Key words: Saif ur Rahman Saleem, Progressive poetry.