

The Political Background of Durkhani School of Thought

Hayyat G

Abstract

This research article is about Durkhani School of thoughts, its origin and political objectives of religious intellectual. It discusses the political background of Balochistan and the role of a religious scholar. Although Molanas worked in reaction of British government and their conspiracies but they literary planed to promote Brahui language. The major subject of this article is to found out the conspiracy roots of English Agents how they made and used Brahui language as a weapon or tool of religion. Secondly this shows the literary characteristic of Durkhani Teachers that their role is not motivational regarding fiction. At the end article resulted with recommendations that it needs to research out the literary deficiencies of that period and personalities. The analytical and descriptive approach of research has been adopted to complete the article.

Keywords: Maktab-e- Durkhani, religious intellectual, conspiracy roots

Hayyat Ghamkhuar is Brahui poet and short story writer.