

Needs and written tradition of Brahui

Baloch.Manzoor, Nazir.iqbal, Sadiq.Haleem and Gul.Nasreen

Abstract

Writing is the only source to represent a language. Brahui manuscripts are not so old. It had been started from the Folk literature. Brahui literature had a vast literature but in the modern era the evolution and the development of a language depends upon the written literature, similarly the literature in the field of applied literature also enhance the value and importance of a language.

This paper illustrate the scope and importance of written literature in context of Brahui language and literature and discuss the finding how can we enhance the written literature.

Keywords: Manuscripts, Trend, Enhance, Applied literature