

A Research analysis of Brahui Folk Lore

Saní L.Alí

Abstract

This research article deals with to know about Brahui folklore. Generally a simple definition has been adopted for Brahui folklore, those folklores has not identified. Simply unknown writers verses known as Brahui folk literature, but in this article it has been proved that many folklores has been written by poets or writers, which are known in literature. "Şatko" is the prominent example of known folklore and there are several folklores which has its writers. A research oriented approach could disclose many known folklores.

Keywords: unknown writers verses, Şatko, known folklore,

Saní L.Alí is with Department of Brahui and Editor of Annual Research Journal Al-Burz.