

View of Mysticism in Brahui literature

Hussain Bakhsh Sajid and Prof.Dr.Hameed Shahwani

Abstract

Mysticism is the belief that people can directly experience God or true reality rather than going to books, rituals or other people. Mystics may experience vision or dream or hear God as voice. Mysticism or Sufism are not two new phenomena, they exist centuries before. In this paper Sufism together with Mysticism and their formidable influence will be assessed in Brahui literature.

key words: Mystics, experience, Vision, Phenomenon.
