

An analyses of Brahui Essay Writing

Abida Baloch and Mehbob Shah

Abstract

An essay is a short academic composition. The word “essay” is derived from a French word “essai” or “essayer,” which mean “trial.” In composition, however, an essay is a piece of non-fiction writing that talks or discusses a specific topic. Presently, essay is part of every degree program. An essay is a specific discussion or debate on a topic from a specific point of view. Everyone discusses the topic from his own specific angle. Readers not only get a glimpse of what the other aspect of the topic is, they also come to know about the tone and voice of the writers to decide whether he has achieved a certain level of capability in writing. in this paper Brahui essay writing and its evaluation has been discussed in brief.

Key words: academic composition, essay, non-fiction