Abstract

Haiku is a form of Japanese poetry which is comprised of 5-7-5 verses. This genre of poetry has been transferred to the other languages of the globe simultaneously. The Brahui literature also adopted this genre of poetry like the other languages of the world till the end of the twentieth century. In the Brahui literature, this genre of poetry was practiced from time to time. The Brahui Haikus, mostly the subjects like, nature, love, patriotism, culture, and the religious matters have been discussed from the last fifty years. This paper focuses the proverbs, riddles and superstitions in the Brahui Haikus to let the people know about the background of this genre.
