

The Topical Study of short stories of Gohar Malik

Aziz Ahmed Jamaladini

Gohar Malik holds a status as a poetess and a short story writer in the Balochi Literature. She has introduced herself mostly as a short story writer. Although, she has written a few numbers of short stories, but her short stories holds a different approach. She is well aware and acquainted with the aspects of short stories. She has illustrated the daily life issues of women related them.

This research paper encompasses all aspects of her short stories.