

Services of the Baloch Educational Society

Muhammad Asim & Dr. Rahim Bakhsh Mehr

The Baloch Educational society (1948) was the first educational organization in Karachi that initiated night schooling in Layari with an organized way and promoted educational cause in the area. Afterall, it this organization established a High school along with a study center and library in 1950 to provide the society a platform for education and enlightenment. Moreover, Baloch Educational society started tradition of literary circles for the promotion of Balochi Language and literature. This research paper discusses all the activities and role of the Baloch Educational society.