

Account of Bakhtnama & the Ulas Journal Quetta

د بخت نامې داستان او د اولس مجلې کوټې بیان

Hafiz Rehmat Niazi (Lecturer, Govt Inter College, Berwary Road, Quetta)

Abstract:

Most of the historical accounts had been witnessed to have compiled by the courtiers time to time according to the wishes of the rulers/ extortioners. Particulaly when they had been challenged by the heroes of the irredenta. Bakhtnama, a pashtoon women was also considered a valiant women extolled in the folk literature. She is said to be incarcerated in Mach Jail by the then British rule before the division of subcontinent in a murder case. This historical and tragic event has been narrated by assorted writers. The author of this paper pointed out new aspects of her incident in the light of valid and authentic arguments including the statement of the eye witnessed Khan Abdul Samad Khan Shaheed.

Key words: Extortioners, Heroes, Bakhtnama, pashtoon women, Khan Abdul Samad Khan Shaheed.