Abstract:

Author of this paper has thoroughly deliberated critics regarding universalism He opines that although universalism is one of the basic values of literature yet it has been made controversial. As, some of the writers completely ignore ground realities of these controversies and their writings lack any connection or interest to their motherland, nation and nationalism. In this article, the writer has strived to provide authentic replies and arguments to the criticism raised and to avoid concerns of the writers so as to give due importance to the ground realities.

Key words: Universalism, Values, Controversies, Literature, ground realities.
