

Impact of Sour revolution on Pashto Literature

د پښتونخوا په ادب د انقلاب نور اثرات

Professor. Dr. Nasrullah Wazir (Director, Pashto Academy University of Peshawar)

Abstract:

The political change in Afghanistan, in April, 1978, was such a global change which not only affected lives of the people of Afghanistan deeply but also rest of the population of the world on one or the other way. In this paper, the writer strives to unpack the literary impacts on the literary genres of the area concerned, with the special reference to its background elucidated in the prose and poetry of the said people.

Key words: political, Afghanistan, literary genres, prose, poetry.