

Historical Criticism

تاريخي تنقيد

Habibullah (M.Phil. Scholar, Bacha Khan University, Charsada Khyber PashtoonKhwa)

Abstract:

Criticizing the literal meaning of the Arabic word, which is derived from cash "examine the unbiased and corruptly". While this means cover the beauty and art of a writer or poet to define the term views and the location. The act of giving your opinion or judgment about the good or bad qualities of something or someone. There are two kinds of criticism one is theoretical and second is practical, and some branches that is one historical criticism. Historical criticism, literary criticism in the light of historical evidence or based on the context in which a work was written, including facts about the author's life and the historical and social circumstances of the time.

Key words: Arabic word, Judgment, Criticism, Historical, literary.