Abstract:

This paper sheds light on the importance of literature in journalism. It is a known fact that journalism and literature are the two sides of the same coin and their separation from each other is impossible, but there are some differences between the two terms. In the case where there is not the beauty of literature in journalism, it would appear like a leaves-free tree. Therefore it is important for a journalist to be equipped with the art of literature, so that his journalistic work is acceptable to people and society.

Key words: literature, journalism, separation, society.
